MANUAL

OF THE

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

IN

WEST BOYLSTON, MASS.

"The house of God, which is the Church of the Living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."—1 Ti. iii. 15.

PREPARED BY

JAMES H. FITTS, Pastor.

CLINTON:
PRINTED BY W. J. COULTER, COURANT OFFICE.
1870.

ORIGINAL CONSTITUTION.

"Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations."—Dt. xxxii. 7.

A number of persons in the Second Precinct of Boylston, Sterling and Holden, met August 18, 1796, with "the design of forming and uniting in a Church." A committee was chosen to draft a Covenant, which was accepted August 25th. Their proceedings were recognized by a Council which met September 15th, and "the Church was formed by the male members signing the Covenant, and the females giving their assent to it." There were thirty-three covenanting members—fourteen males and nineteen females.

CONFESSION AND COVENANT.

"Come and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten."—Jer. l. 5.

We who have hereunto subscribed our names, apprehending ourselves called upon in the gospel to unite in a Church state, do, under a lively sense of duty and obligation to God for his unmerited favors to us, confess our sins before Him and humbly ask His forgiveness through Jesus Christ His son, our all-sufficient Savior; and relying on the aid of that rich and sovereign grace promised in the gospel to help our infirmities, do look unto Him for all we need, both in time and eternity, thankfully receiving all His covenant mercies.

1st. We declare our serious belief in the Christian religion, as contained in the sacred Scriptures, and with such a view thereof as the Confession of Faith in our Churches has exhibited, heartily resolving to conform our lives to the rules of that holy religion so long as we live.

2d. We give up ourselves unto the Lord Jehovah, avouching Him this day to be our God and Father, and receive Him as our portion forever.

3d. We give up ourselves to the blessed Jesus who is the Lord our righteousness, and adhere to Him as the head of His Church in the Covenant of Grace, relying on Him as our prophet, priest and king, to bring us to everlasting happiness.

4th. We acknowledge our everlasting and indispensable obligation to glorify God in all the duties of a godly and sober life; in the observance of all the ordinances of the gospel; and depend on the gracious assistance of His holy spirit, that we may acceptably perform our whole duty.

5th. With humble dependence on God we engage to walk together as a Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, in the faith and order of the gospel, so far as we shall have the same made known to us; conscientiously attending public worship and the Sacraments of the New Testament; promising to dedicate our children to the Lord, and assisted by Him to give them a pious education; living in communion with each other, watchfully avoiding all contentions, ever rebuking with meekness, as becomes brethren in love.

ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

Adopted March 2, 1838.

"Stand fast in the faith."—1 Cor. xvi. 13.

CONFESSION.

"Hold fast the form of sound words."—1 Ti. 1. 13.

I. We believe in the existence of one God, the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of the Universe; possessed of every possible perfection; infinite in wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth; the eternal, self-existent, independent, and unchangeable fountain of all good.

II. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and contain a complete and perfect rule of faith and practice.

III. We believe that Jehovah, the only living and true God, exists as Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and that these three are in essence one, and in all divine attributes, equal.

IV. We believe that God made all things for Himself; that known unto Him are all His works from the beginning; and that He governs all things according to the counsel of His own will.

V. We believe that God created man in His own image, holy and upright, and that he fell from this state by transgressing the divine command.

VI. We believe that in consequence of the apostacy, all mankind are by nature children of disobedience; and till renewed by the agency of the Holy Spirit, are averse to God and holiness, and justly exposed to eternal punishment.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, became man, and by His obedience, sufferings, and death, made an atonement for the sins of the world.

VIII. We believe that although the invitations of the Gospel are so extensive, that all who will, may come and take the water of life freely, yet the wickedness of the human heart is such that none will come, unless drawn by the special influences of the Holy Spirit.

IX. We believe that those who embrace the Gospel were chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world; and that they are saved, not by works of righteousness which they have done, but by the mercy of GOD through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.

X. We believe that those who cordially embrace Christ, though they may be left to commit sin, will never be left finally to fall away and perish, but will be kept by the mighty power of GOD through faith unto salvation.

XI. We believe that watchfulness over the heart and life, holy meditations, and concientious attendance upon public, family, and secret worship, together with the steady practice of righteousness, truth, sincerity, and charity towards men, and of sobriety, chastity, and temperance, towards ourselves, are indispensable duties of every Christian.

XII. We believe that Baptism and the LORD's Supper are the instituted Sacraments of the New Testament, and that it is the indispensable duty of all professing Christians to attend on these ordinances; that Baptism is to be administered only to believers, and their households, and the Supper only to believers in regular church standing.

XIII. We believe that GOD has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by JESUS CHRIST:—when there will be a resurrection of the dead, and when the righteous will enter on eternal happiness, and the wicked will be sentenced to eternal misery.

Such are the leading doctrines believed by this Church. Do you cordially assent to them?

COVENANT.

"My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips."—Ps. LXXXIX. 34.

You do now, in the presence of the heart-searching God, before angels and men, choose the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever.

You acknowledge Jesus Christ as your only Savior and final Judge; and the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.

You humbly and cheerfully dedicate yourself to God in the everlasting covenant of grace, and consecrate all your powers and faculties to His service and glory;– You promise to take the Holy Scriptures as the rule of your life and conversation; that you will give diligent attention to His word and ordinances, to family and secret prayer, and to the conscientious observance of the Sabbath; that you will seek the honor of His name and the interests of His kingdom; and that henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously and godly in the present world.

You do now cordially unite yourself to this Church of Christ, promising to submit to its discipline, so far as conformable to the rules of the Gospel; to seek its edification, purity and peace; and to walk with its members in christian love, watchfulness, and meekness—humbly relying on the grace of God, with an affecting belief that your vows are recorded on high, and will be reviewed in the day of final judgment.—Thus in the strength of your Lord and Savior, you solemnly covenant and promise.

(RESPONSE OF THE CHURCH.)

We do then receive you into our communion and fellowship, and we promise to watch over you with christian affection and tenderness, ever treating you in love as a member of the body of Christ, who is Head over all things to His Church.

You have now assumed solemn obligations, from which you can never escape. Wherever you go in life, these vows will be upon you; at death they will follow you to the bar of God, and abide with you through eternity. Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you; and as you demean yourself, so religion will be honored or disgraced.

We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, earnestly imploring the great Shepherd of Israel, our Lord and Redeemer, that both you and we may have wisdom and grace to be faithful in His covenant, to glorify Him in holiness, and at last to be received to His everlasting mansions of bliss. Amen.
